The Luxembourg Ministry of Economy, the Luxembourg Chamber of Commerce and FEDIL, in cooperation with PwC Luxembourg, have the pleasure of inviting you to the tenth edition of the “Journée de l’Economie” on:

Investing in talents

How to attract, grow and retain them?

taking place on Thursday 25 February 2016 at the Chamber of Commerce (7, Alcide de Gasperi, Luxembourg – Kirchberg).

The conference will be the opportunity for local and international experts to meet and discuss this crucial question in an attempt to seize Luxembourg’s potential to become a global leader in talents.

This year’s key feature will be the three breakout sessions on the theme of Attracting, Developing and Retaining talents.

Join us for one of the following discussions:

1. Competing on the international market to attract talents to Luxembourg,
2. Developing talents, re-skilling the workforce and avoiding skill gaps,
3. Integration and the importance of a welcoming culture.

N.B: Please note that the conference will be held in English and will be translated into French.

Please register on:
www.jecolux.lu

Enrolment fees to the conference amount to 70 euros. As every year, the proceeds from the registration fees will be donated to an initiative that supports the development of entrepreneurship. For the 2016 edition of the “Journée de l’Economie”, the proceeds will go to nyuko (<https://nyuko.lu/>).
