- Mid-cap companies may receive direct support for research and development investments

The EIB typically finances up to 50% of project costs

The screenshot shows the EIB website's 'Where to access finance - EIF financial intermediaries' page. At the top, there is a navigation menu with 'Home', 'Contact us', and 'Sitemap'. Below the menu is a search bar. The main content area features a blue header with 'What we do', 'EFSI', and 'News & Publications'. The page title is 'Where to access finance - EIF financial intermediaries'. The text explains that the EIF supports micro, small, and medium-sized enterprises (SMEs) by working with a wide range of funds, banks, guarantee, and microfinance institutions across Europe. It states that these act as EIF's financial intermediaries and provide financial products to SMEs. A map of Europe is shown on the left. Below the text, there is a section for selecting a country from a list. A light blue box contains the text: 'For information about finance available under further EU initiatives, please visit <http://www.accesstofinance.eu>'. At the bottom, there is a section for 'European Union' with a list of countries: Austria, Belgium, Bulgaria, Croatia, Cyprus, Czech Republic, Denmark, Estonia, Finland, France, Germany, Greece, Hungary, Ireland, Italy, Latvia, Lithuania, Luxembourg, Malta, Netherlands, Poland, Portugal, Romania, Slovakia, Slovenia, Spain, Sweden, United Kingdom.
