

Winner of women manager prize

The head of architectural office Team 31, Françoise Folmer is this year's winner of the "Woman Business Manager of the Year". The award's main sponsor is the BIL. She is the boss of about 20 employees in three companies in areas as diverse as architecture, project management and consulting. The prize is intended to give more visibility to talented women in Luxembourg's business world. Folmer dedicated her prize "to all the woman who would like to but don't dare to start their own business". The award comes with a 1000 euro prize.

Françoise Folmer with François Pauly, Head of the Board of Directors of BIL.

Photo: BIL