Wenn das Große Theater am hauptstädtischen Glacis gestern Vormittag gut gefüllt war, war dies ausnahmsweise einmal nicht durch eine kulturelle Veranstaltung bedingt. Für die anwesenden jungen Menschen war gestern ein ganz besonderer Tag: Sie erhielten ihr langsehntes Diplom, das ihnen den Weg ins Berufsleben eröffnet.

In diesem Jahr waren es 755 Jugendliche, die die Früchte ihrer schulischen Bemühungen ernten konnten. Die meisten von ihnen erhielten gestern ein CATP-Diplom (Certificat d'aptitude technique et professionnelle), für andere war es ein CITT (Certificat d'initiation technique et professionnelle), ein DAP (Diplôme d'aptitude professionnelle) oder ein DT (Diplôme de technicien). Der Feierstunde, die von der „Chambre de commerce“ und der „Luxembourg school for commerce“ (LSC) organisiert worden war, wohnte auf Regierungsseite neben Unterrichtsministerin Mady Delvaux-Stehres auch Arbeitsminister Nicolas Schmit bei. Wie die Unterrichtsministerin beglückwünschten auch Pierre Gramagna, Direktor der Handelskammer, und Jean-Claude Reding, Präsident der Arbeitnehmerkammer, die Jugendlichen zum erfolgreichen Abschluss ihrer Ausbildung und wünschten ihnen viel Erfolg bei ihrer beruflichen Laufbahn.
