

// Quality award 2009: apply now

The Mouvement Luxembourgeois pour la Qualité launched the Quality award 2009 (Prix luxembourgeois de la Qualité), in collaboration with the Ministry of Economy, the Ministry of the Middle class, the Administration Ministry and other partners such as Luxinnovation and the Chamber of Commerce. The organisers are looking for companies that can show clear commercial success, high product quality and 'happy' clients. Five prizes will be awarded: three for commercial entities (less than 25, between 25 and 200, and more than 200 employees) and two for public companies (25 employees or less and more than 25 employees). Applications are accepted until 29 May while awards will be given on a gala evening on 20 November 2009. www.mlq.lu
