

Olivier Gasche

Revel Wood

Michel Wurth

Sensing systems company IEE has appointed Olivier Gasche as Executive VP Finance & Administration. He brings a range of experience to the role, but most recently was CFO at LBC. The company welcomed the addition of his international expertise given the current economic climate.

Fund administration company Northern Trust has appointed Revel Wood to the newly created positions of head of client service and business development in Luxembourg, and deputy managing director of Luxembourg office. He will assume overall responsibility for products and client service in the region and will also serve on the Board of Directors of the company. He reports to Patrice Gilson, who was named country head for Northern Trust Luxembourg in October 2008. Wood joined the firm in 2004, becoming global head of derivatives product management in London.

Mikael Grahné (54) is the new president and CEO of Luxembourg-based telecoms operator Millicom International Cellular. He has been COO since 2002 before which he was president with Seagram Latin America. He replaces the previous president/CEO Marc Beuls who held the post for eleven years.

Charles Denotte (46) has been confirmed in the post as general branch manager at Citibank Luxembourg. He was working as acting head since September 2008 since the departure of Marc Pecquet. He also retains the role as director head compliance for Belgium, the Netherlands, Germany, Austria and Switzerland. He has been with Citi since 1999.

The Chamber of Commerce has re-elected the existing board members for another five year period. Michel Wurth of ArcelorMittal remains as chairman supported by four vice-chairmen: Jean Schintgen, Fernand Ernster, Frank Wagener and Robert Dennewald.

Marc Glesener has been re-elected president of the main finance union Aleba.

Following nine years in the Real Estate department of Linklaters in Brussels (becoming managing associate in 2004) Jérôme Conrard has joined the Luxembourg office. He will specialise in real estate acquisitions and financial structures.

Philippe Sablot (44) is a new legal director with Fortis Assurances Luxembourg. He was previously with the NewPelGroup, Crédit Lyonnais UK and was vice-president and head of tax & legal Nationwide Global (ex-Pan-euro-life). He is joined by Frederic Laval (33) who is the new director of treasury, markets, investments, leaving his role as project manager and fund administration manager with Aspecta.

After five years with the company as commercial director Pascal Grosse (43) is the new country manager of Bull Luxembourg PSF.

He will be in charge of developing the company and its subsidiary CBS in the areas of infrastructure, security and open source. He was previously country manager with Vision IT.

Eric Sublon (37) and Michel Bulach (34) have both become equity partners with Wildgen, Partners in Law with both having spent around 10 years with the practice. Sublon specialises in company law, particular M&A, private equity and restructuring. Bulach will manage the capital markets operations, particularly structured products and securitisation.

Raymond Penneman (44) has been appointed as an advisor in search engine optimisation at Editus' new media agency Lisa Media. He was previously engaged in this role with the firm Pulibcityweb before which he had IT experience with three Luxembourgish private banks as well as the consultants Sogeti.

Fatima Oudoud (33) has joined Rowlands International as a senior consultant responsible for approaching and recruiting business development managers and people managers for private banking and investment funds. She was previously with Korn/Ferry International and RBC Dexia Investor Services.