

9th Arab Belgian Luxembourg Economic Forum

This fall, the ABLCC presented its 9th Arab-Belgium-Luxembourg Economic Forum which brings together decision makers, government officials, diplomats, business executives, investors, and professional organizations from Belgium, Luxembourg, the EU, and Arab countries. This year's event was attended by nearly 150 participants who were addressed by a distinguished panel of speakers, all recognized as leaders in their fields. These top-notch speakers shared their experiences and perspectives on topics from Banking & Finance, to Energy & Water, to Logistics and Infrastructure.

For this 9th edition of the Forum, the Hashemite Kingdom of Jordan was the country in the spotlights and Carlo Thelen, Director General of the Luxembourg Chamber of Commerce, was invited to take part in the opening session. This Forum has been a suitable occasion for the participants to explore the various ways to expand their business activities to and with the Arab world, and served as a source of inspiration to face business challenges in an innovative way. Last but not least, the Forum has also been offering its participants with the best opportunities for investments, cooperation and partnership.
